

Neblina Crossword

Using the hints below fill in the crossword to reveal the final word

The Neblina Reserve protects 2,200 hectares of threatened high altitude cloud forest in north-west Ecuador.

Read about it on our website: www.rainforestconcern.org/projects/Neblina-Reserve tip: have a look at our website if you need more help finding the answers

Down

1. The smallest bird species in the world
2. A type of flowering epiphyte that commonly grow on trees in Neblina and are also found in the UK
3. The term used for a globally biologically rich area that is threatened

Across

4. A big wild cat species often seen on the camera trap photos in the Neblina Reserve
5. A small wild cat species seen less but is still present in the Neblina Reserve
6. The longest continental mountain range in the world, also the location of Neblina
7. A threat to the Neblina Reserve. The extraction of mineral from the Earth

